

The Leaders of Tomorrow Scholarship by the JAM Charitable Foundation Program Overview and Guidelines

Objective

To provide support for students involved in the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Toronto mentoring program as they enter their first year of post-secondary education.

Description

The Leaders of Tomorrow Scholarship was created by the JAM Charitable Foundation to provide post-secondary financial support to promising students affiliated with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Toronto. Ideal candidates should love learning, be actively involved in school clubs or team athletics and contribute to their community in meaningful ways.

Scholarship Value and Duration

This one-time award of $5,000 for tuition will be offered to two students during their first year of post-secondary education.

Eligibility

The recipient must be:

- A student in Grade 12
- Participating in or graduated from the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Toronto program
- A Canadian citizen or permanent resident
- Entering into full-time studies at a Canadian university, college or trade school

Field of Study/Program Requirements

- There are no restrictions regarding the program of study or discipline that a student may choose
- Program must be a minimum of two years in duration for a Bachelor's degree or diploma program, or a minimum of one year in duration for a trades program

Selection of Scholarship Recipients

The JAM Charitable Foundation Scholarship Program Selection Committee will select two scholarship winners. The Selection Committee consists of JAM Direct Inc. employees. All decisions are final.

Selection is based on the following:

- Completion of the application, which includes four essay questions
- An in-person or virtual interview with the selection committee
- Applicant's community service and extra-curricular involvement in sports teams or clubs
- Demonstration of leadership qualities
- Applicants must show that they are committed to their education

Award Timing and Terms

CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

- Winners will be notified by email on June 21, 2024
- Scholarship payment will only be issued upon completion of the scholarship application and review and acceptance of all required supporting documentation
- Winners must provide proof of graduation from their high school and an acceptance letter for the post-secondary school they will attend
- Proof of tuition payment may be required
- It is the student's responsibility to ensure that payment of tuition fees is made within the defined timeframe set by the educational institution, regardless of the timing of the scholarship payment

Payment

- Student will receive the scholarship amount in two increments. $2,500 will be given in August for the first semester and $2,500 will be given in January for the second semester
- Winners must provide JAM Charitable Foundation with proof of payment for tuition each semester
- The second $2,500 payment will only be given once the student has provided JAM Charitable Foundation with their transcript of grades for the first semester and a copy of their second semester tuition bill
